

The IAPA has awarded the Chapultepec Grand Prize since 1998 to individuals or organizations for their defense and promotion of freedom of expression and press freedom within the framework of the Declaration of Chapultepec.

These are the winners of the Chapultepec Grand Prize:

2023	Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights (RFK Human Rights), United States.
2022	Fundación para la Libertad de Prensa (FLIP), Colombia.
2021	Martin Baron. Executive editor of The Washington Post, USA.
2020	Edison Lanza. Special Rapporteur for Freedom of Expression of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights.
2019	Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press (RCFP), USA.
2018	Newseum, USA.
2017	Gregorio Badeni. Constitutional Lawyer, Argentina.
2016	Alberto Ibargüen. President of the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, USA.
2015	Catalina Botero. Former Special Rapporteur for Freedom of Expression of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights.
2014	VACANT.
2013	Fernando Henrique Cardozo. Former Presidente Brazil.
2012	Enrique Krauze. Mexican Mexican historian, writer and journalist.
2011	Mario Vargas Llosa. Writer, professor, 2010 Literature Nobel Prize winner.
2010	José Miguel Vivanco. Director of the Americas Division of Human Rights Watch.
2009	Asdrúbal Aguiar. Academic, lawyer, former judge of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, and Chapultepec Ambassador.
2008	Supreme Court of Argentina.
2007	World Bank.
2006	Inter-American Court of Human Rights.
2005	Santiago Canton, Executive Secretary of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights.
2004	VACANT.
2003	Anthony Lewis, Author of the book "Make No Law: The Sullivan Case and the First Amendment" and former New York Times columnist.
2002	Claudio Grossman, Former President of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights.
2001	Jorge Santistevan, Peruvian Human Rights Ombudsman.
2000	Dana Bullen, Former Executive Director of the World Press Freedom Committee.
1999	Arthur O. Sulzberger, President Emeritus of The New York Times Company.
1998	Federico Mayor Zaragoza, Director-General of UNESCO.